Sightseeing Tours

Bonn Open-Top Bus Tour

The tour offers an overview of the city's many different facets and most interesting sights: Poppelsdorf Palace and the city's picturesque Südstadt quarter with its wonderfully preserved Wilhelminian town houses, the city centre with the Beethoven House, Old Town Hall, university and Minster Basilica, the Rhine promenades and Bonn's renowned 'Museum Mile'.

Another highlight of the tour is the former government quarter, now the UN Campus with the World Conference Center Bonn and hub of many major international media and services companies. The tour also passes through Bad Godesberg, a former spa town and the diplomatic quarter during Bonn's time as the German capital, with its beautiful villas.

Bonn's unique location on the Rhine and the impressive panorama of the city with the Siebengebirge National Park are best enjoyed from one of the bridges across the Rhine.

University of Bonn

Regina-Pacis-Weg 3 | 53113 Bonn | Tel. 0228.73 76 47 | Fax 0228.73 74 51

The University of Bonn, the former electoral residence, was founded in 1818 by King Friedrich-Wilhelm III. The long east wing of the building reaches almost to the Rhine. A gilded archangel flies in splendour over the 'Koblenzer Tor' (Coblenz Gate), which was designed by Michel Leveilly and built into the impressive façade of the gate.

Bonn's Egyptian Museum is situated above the Coblenz Gate and boasts an Egyptology collection of about 3,000 objects from 4000 BC to 300 AD.

The Hofgarten park is adjacent to the main building of the university and the Academic Art Museum, which features, among other things, one of the world's largest collections of plaster cast antique sculptures. www.museen.uni-bonn.de

Poppelsdorf Palace and the Botanical Gardens of the University of Bonn

Meckenheimer Allee 171 | 53115 Bonn | Tel. 0228.73 55 23 | Fax 0228.73 90 58

The former summer residence of Elector Clemens August is situated at the end of Poppelsdorfer Allee and has housed the University of Bonn's natural science collection since 1818. It is home to the Mineralogical Museum with an impressive collection of precious stones and meteorites. The Botanical Gardens at the palace are among the oldest in Germany and have one of the most extensive collections of plant species in Germany, with a stock of 11,000 different species in eleven greenhouses. The highlights include the largest water lilies in the world, the leaves of which can bear a weight of up to 80 kg and the titan arum, the world's largest flowering plant.

Südstadt

The Südstadt quarter, situated south of the city centre, between Regina-Pacis-Weg, Poppelsdorfer Allee, Reuterstraße, Kaiserstraße, Weberstraße and the Rhine, is often referred to (along with Bonn's Weststadt) as the largest connected and preserved Wilhelminian quarter in Germany. The many restaurants and bars contribute to the quality and popularity of this lush green residential quarter.

Sterntor

The Sterntor gate on the northern side of Botlerplatz is a testimony to the city's medieval fortifications and consists of the remains of the original Sterntor, what is left of the city walls and an old half tower.

Münsterbasilika mit Kreuzgang (Minster Basilica with Cloister)

Münsterplatz | Tel. 0228.98 58 80

Bonn's nine-hundred-year-old minster basilica was built on a Roman burial ground. The basilica's 12th-century Romanesque cloister and its powerful, yet slender-looking, 92 m high spire make it well worth a visit.

The Romantic Rhine Valley

For over two centuries, guests from all over the world have travelled to the Romantic Rhine; Whether it was Goethe, Mark Twain, Casanova or William Turner – none could resist the allure of this fascinating landscape. The Siebengebirge hills near Bonn mark the start of the most impressive section of the river valley. There are still numerous castles and palaces in the wooded hills on both banks waiting to welcome the visitors of today. Immerse yourself in a world of myths and legends, and experience the romance of the Rhine.

Drachenfels in the Siebengebirge and Königswinter

The town of Königswinter on the River Rhine is famous for its sights and wines. Together with the Siebengebirge, the oldest national park in Germany, it is a particularly attractive destination for excursions. Travel up the Drachenfels (Dragon's Rock) with Germany's oldest rack railway; Drachenburg Castle is situated halfway up; and the nearby Petersberg with the Grandhotel Petersberg offers a magnificent view of the Rhine Valley.

'Rhine in Flames' between Linz and Bonn

Every year on the first Saturday in May

'Rhine in Flames' is undoubtedly one of the most splendid and spectacular festivals on the Rhine. About 60 illuminated vessels sail from Linz to Bonn, past riverside promenades, castles and churches bathed in the glow of Bengal lights, while various hilltop fireworks light up the night sky. The festival culminates in Bonn with an impressive half-hour firework accompanied by music. The best place to enjoy this unique event is on board one of the vessels. In addition, there is a large festival with live music in the Rheinaue Leisure Park during the day.

Activities in Bonn

Cycling

Bonn is a bicycle-friendly city and ideal starting point for numerous cycling tours, including:

- 'Erlebnisweg Rheinschiene' / Part of the Rhine Cycle Route
The route stretches down the Rhine from Bonn to Duisburg along flat, quiet roads on both sides of the river. The route is well sign-posted with useful information such as directions to the nearest ferry or bridge, allowing tourists to cross the Rhine easily and plan their own routes.
- Three Rivers Tour: Cycling tour along the Rhine, Ahr and Erft
The most beautiful cycling tours connect Father Rhine and his daughters. The tour takes you past famous world culture heritage sites, along the Red Wine Trail and to less well-known treasures in the three river area.

Further suggestions for cycling tours in Bonn and the Region are available at www.radregionrheinland.de

TIP: Bonn Regio WelcomeCard holders get a 10% discount at 'Radstation', the largest bike rental station in Bonn

Hiking

Bonn is an ideal starting point for beautiful hikes along the Rhine to the famous nearby recreational areas of the Rhineland Nature Park and the Siebengebirge, Germany's oldest national park.

- Rheinsteig (Rhine Footpath): an interesting 320 km premium hiking trail with beautiful views. The trail leads from Bonn to Wiesbaden along the right bank of the Rhine.
- Rhein Höhenweg (Rhine High Trail): one of the oldest hiking trails in Germany along the lofty banks and hills overlooking the Rhine. The trail starts in Bonn.
- Rheinburgenweg (Rhine Castle Trail): a hiking trail along the left bank of the Rhine that focuses on the unique castle landscape of the Upper Middle Rhine Valley.
- Natursteig Sieg (Sieg Nature Trail): a quality hiking trail with an interesting course along the Sieg Valley.
- Rotweinwanderweg (Red Wine Hiking Trail): a hiking trail that winds its way through the magnificent terraced vineyards of the idyllic Ahr Valley.

Inline-Skating and Skateboarding

Bonn is a true skater's paradise. Beside the many pathways along the Rhine, the city also boasts a half-pipe in the Rheinaue Leisure Park.

Swimming and Water Sports

Bonn has a lot to offer for water sports enthusiasts. Whether swimming, rowing or sailing – the Rhine and the Region's lakes are perfectly suited for sport and leisure. There are also many spa offers in the Region with thermal baths.

Shopping / Cuisine / Culture

Shopping in Bonn

Chic boutiques, traditional specialist stores, modern department stores, trendy shopping arcades and colourful markets make shopping in Bonn a real pleasure. And the offer is not limited to one of Germany's oldest and largest pedestrian precincts in the heart of the city, but also extends to the shopping high streets of the city districts Bad Godesberg, Beuel and Hardtberg. Designer fashion, toys, art and craft, musical memories from the city of Beethoven or the region's culinary specialities – all of these souvenirs can be found in Bonn.

Culinary Diversity

The university city of Bonn is a young and dynamic city that offers culinary specialities from many countries around the world; however, visitors who are looking for typical German cuisine and a cosy Rhenish beer tavern, are just as likely to find it in the centre of the city. In the evenings, a visit to the student quarters, Old Town (behind the Stadthaus town hall), Südstadt quarter (between Prinz-Albert-Straße and Poppelsdorfer Allee) or Poppelsdorf (close to the palace) can always be recommended. The culinary diversity ranges from the traditional, rustic pub and exotic speciality restaurants all the way to fine gourmet restaurants and nightly hot spots. The 'Enderich cultural mile' is a major attraction with its cabarets, pubs and bars. During the summers Bonn's citizens and visitors like to sit by the Rhine and enjoy the magnificent panoramic views offered by the city's beautiful beer gardens and traditional wine taverns. Bonn's flourishing outdoor bar and restaurant scene and Rhenish flair has led to it sometimes being called 'Italy's northernmost city'.

Further information on Bonn's restaurants, bars, taverns and events can be found in the 'bonnjour' and 'Bonner Illustrierte' magazines, as well as on the Internet at www.bonn.de and www.bonn-region.de.
