Bonn Information

Tourist advice, accommodation, guided coach and walking tours, tour guide service, Bonn souvenirs, event programmes, ticket service, theatre and concert tickets

Windeckstraße 1/am Münsterplatz, 53111 Bonn

Tel.: +49 (0) 228 - 77 50 00 bonninformation@bonn.de www.bonn.de

Information and bookings of tour guides:
Bonn-Information, Bonn-Touren dept.
Tel.: +49 (0) 228 - 77 39 21 and 77 50 01
Fax: +49 (0) 228 - 77 39 20
E-Mail: bonntouren@bonn.de www.bonn.de/@bonn-tours

Opening hours:
Monday - Thursday 10 am - 1 pm and 2 pm - 4 pm
Friday 10 am - 2 pm

Tram 16, 18, 61, 62, 63, 66
Stop: Hauptbahnhof (main railway station)
Discover Ludwig van Beethoven’s birthplace in the Bonngasse 20, where he was born in December 1770. Who at that time could have known that a musical genius was born, whose music is known all over the world today? Beethoven lived in Bonn until 1792, before he moved to Vienna, where he became one of the world’s famous composers. You will visit places and locations where the world-famous composer worked, and you will get fascinating insights into his everyday life. Possible stations of the tour could include: The Remigius Church with Ludwig van Beethoven’s baptismal font and the Beethoven monument at the Münsterplatz. There is a guided tour of his birth house, which also accommodates the largest Beethoven museum in the world. There one can see interesting displays and details from his time in Bonn.

Duration: 2 hours
Price: 106 Euro
Registration fee of 5 Euro per group. The entrance fee for the Beethoven House is paid on location.

Maximum number for walking tour: 25 people
Available languages: English, French, Dutch, Russian, Polish, others on request

Experience Bonn’s cultural highlights:
Rhine in Flames (Fireworks) 6 May 2017
International Beethoven Festival 8 Sept. - 1 Oct. 2017
Bonn Christmas Market 24 Nov. - 23 Dec. 2017
and many more...